Hon. Boyd Winchester Nominated for Congress.

By reference to our very full report of the proceedings of the Convention, which met at Lagrange yesterday, it will be seen that Hon-Boyd Winchester, of this city, was chosen as the Democracie candidate to succeed Hon. Ass. P. Grover, as Representative of this District in Congress. It cannol be concealed that there was much dissatisfaction expressed with the sanner in which some of our ward meetings were manipulated, and this feeling may attach some extent to the nomination. But the cople had fair warning, and, as they neglectod their duty and failed to attend those ward meetings, thus allowing them to be packed by an obnoxious clique, they have no right to grumble now, and are bound give Mr. Winchester a cordial support. We clieve they will do so cheerfully, because hatever may be the feeling toward some of nose who so actively espoused his cause, there none against him, and nobody doubts his rorth and his fitness for the position. Indeed, is strength is shown by the fact of his nomi-

Two miles of drayage and ferriage from the back part of Covington to the back part of Covington to the back part of Cincinnati, one mile of drayage again at Lexington one depot to another; about one mile of drayage again at this city—and this is the "freedom of access to all parts of the State," which the five-foot gauge imposes upon us! As long as we maintain it we will have to break bulk at Cincinnati, because the roads terminating in that city from the North and Feat are of a career.

With all his animosity toward the Southern whites, as a people, he is said to have been at ways kind to individuals from that section when they approached him for a favor.

If he had been as charitable toward communities as he was to persons; if he had been as true to the whole country as he was to his own section; if he had been as true to the whole country as he was to his own section; if he had been as true to the whole country as he was to his own section; if he had been as full full to the Constitution as he was to his party, his ison will, his courage and his talents would have litters are addressed to Hon, Isaac R. It is to prove that the section when the church at the own prediction of the deepest interest to our oritine peo ty from the North and East are of a na ga uge. It is also morally certain that so long as we have to break bulk there the present status will be maintained in Louisville and Lexington, and bulk will have to be broken at all three of these places.

The proposition of Louisville is to relieve the State of all this tax. She offers a close connection at this point on condition that the road hence to Cincinnati shall conform to the motives and nobler capabili gauge of the roads beyond that point, so that gauge of the roads beyond that point, so that loaded ears can pass from one road to the other in the transaction of Kentucky's business with the East. WASHINGTON, Aug. 7, 1868.

DEAR SIR: Inclosed I hand you a copy of a letter, addressed by Mr. E. A. Rollina, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to the President of the United States, on the Sth day of June, 1868, and also a copy of the President's endorsement there on, dated August 5, 1868.
Under these circumstances the following questions are presented for your consideration. First, is the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue occur, and can a successor to Mr. Rollins be appointed during the recess of the Senate? The office is vacant, when did the vacancy occur, and can a successor to Mr. Rollins be appointed during the recess of the Senate? The office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue being a very important and responsible one, it is desirable that there should be no doubt as to the legal status of the person in charge of it. I desire that you will favor me with your opinion on the questions thus presented to you at your carliest convenience.

Very respectfully.

your obodient servant,
H. McCULLOCH, Sec'y of Treasury.
